UPDATE

Work has started!

The builders have started digging out the drains and boarding around the tombs also clearing back trees and bushes so they can get the scaffolding in. We are hoping that phases one and two can be combined and only pay to have scaffolding put up once rather than in two stages, this will save time and money. Hopefully if everything gets done at once most of the work can be done before the bats return. The stonessfield slates have been ordered and Carolyn Peach has got some storage space to keep everything in.

Some figures missing from the last minutes are;-

Opera in the garden raised £1,556.00

Cream tea £257.00

Bank holiday Monday was cold and wet and not the day for eating filled rolls – a bbq would have been much better! We raised £75.50

Thanks to Bob for running the aunt sally and raising £36.00

And to Fred and Kath Bellenger for selling books and running a secret parcel tombola. They raised £70.00

We will meet at 7.10. Jackie has approx 68 flute glasses. We have at least 12 bottles of cava

Jackie will get some crisps, peanuts etc

Phil will do a slide show. James will ask Phil about back ground music. Jackie will ask Phil to do a brief financial statement so that when people ask how we are getting on we can show them.

BARN DANCE

No further news as we are kind of hoping that by this time next year we will have raised all the funds we need!

WELSH 3000'ers

Well done to James and his gang, they raised about £400.00. Unfortunately some people dropped out and then someone got injured climbing a mountain and they had to go back down with him and give up their challenge.

LEW VIEW WALK

On hold until finer weather and a time when we have no other sponsored events on

RIDE'N'STRIDE

Jackie, Tammy, Dawn, Jacquie and Gill walked 13 miles and visited 18 churches on a very warm day. It took all day to walk from Witney to Burford via Crawley, Minster Lovell, Worsham, Asthall, Swinbrook and Widford but it was an enjoyable event. We don't yet know how much money was raised.

ACCESSORIES SWAP

This will be in the Chequers front room on Tuesday November 13th from 8pm

Lucy will put an appeal in the school newsletter asking for donations. Charlotte at the Chequers will take in donations at anytime.

Ask Phil if we have any Christmas cards left we could put out

Ask Phil to do some posters that Jackie can then shrink for a door to door drop

We should have a raffle!

20ps

Jackie has been handed some more 20 pence coins. They would be in a smartie tube but the donator has given up eating chocolate but still collects the coins

Unfortunately Bob has decided that he needs to leave the committee at Christmas. Thanks Bob for all your help with everything over the past 3 years.
